The United States Department of Justice, Department of the Inspector General, is hereby notified that the following information is being furnished to the Department of the Inspector General for its use in the performance of its duties:

1. The "Bureau of Information" is a group of individuals who are responsible for the collection, analysis, and dissemination of information. The Bureau is headed by the Chief of the Bureau, who is responsible for the overall management of the Bureau. The Bureau is divided into several sections, each of which is responsible for a specific area of information. The sections are: (a) General Information, (b) Intelligence, (c) Research, (d) Planning, (e) Administration, and (f) Finance. The Bureau is also responsible for the coordination of information activities with other agencies and organizations. The Bureau is a key component of the National Security Agency (NSA) and is responsible for providing the President and the Secretary of Defense with the information they need to make decisions on national security matters.
